

Certificate of Appreciation

Congratulations for contributing to World Environment Day 2024 through your event or activity.
The United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) expresses its appreciation to Department of Environmental science, Kuvempu University from

Shimoga, Karnāṭaka, India

for joining the #GenerationRestoration movement and making World Environment Day 2024 a huge success. Together, we can restore land, build drought resilience and combat desertification.
