One week Workshop

Mathematics of Machine Learning & Data Sciences with Applications

18 - 24 March 2021

Organized by

Department of PG Studies and Research in Computer Science Jnanasahyadri, Shankaraghatta, Shivamogga, Karnataka India - 577451 A breakthrough in a Machine Learning would be worth ten Microsofts

- Bill Gates

About the Workshop

This workshop aims to provide hands on experience to the faculty, and research scholars in the field of Machine Learning & Data Science.

The Workshop will help the participants to learn the Mathematical principles in Machine Learning & Data Science and understand to build efficient Machine Learning & Data Science Models to meet real time requirements.

Course Outline

- Linear Algebra, Probability, Statistics and Algorithms
- Design of Classifiers, Neural and non Neural approaches to Data Classification
- Machine Learning approaches in DATA Sciences. Applications in various domains.
- All the tasks will be done using Python Programming which is also taught
